Department 10 Open Class Foods

Superintendent: Jeannine Flory

Assistant: Betty Buttron

Jr. Assistant: Laura Flory

Special Awards:

Florence Hinz, Effingham, will award $10 to the Champion baked food.

In memory of Karen Flory, Sam Flory provides a cash award for Reserve Champion Baked Product.

Atchison Country Mart provides a gift certificate to Champion Bread product.

In memory of Karen Flory, Sam Flory provides a cash award for the most creative food entry.

Foods Rules:

1. Exhibitors must remain with exhibit until properly classified and tagged. Entry tags may be picked up from the Extension Office prior to the Fair.
2. Only entries conforming to current class listings will be accepted.
3. An entry fee of 25 cents for each exhibit will be collected from exhibitors residing outside Atchison County.
4. All entries must be in place by 11 a.m. on Tuesday of Fair Week.
5. The recipe for your product is required in order to be eligible for an award. For judging purposes, name should not appear on the recipe. Recipe will not be kept or shared without permission. Exhibits in this department must be homemade and the work of the exhibitor. (In the baked foods classes, no cake mix or other mix allowed except where noted.)
6. No exhibitor will receive more than one premium money in any one class.
7. Entries in the youth classes will be by youth under 13 years of age.
8. Food must be removed from pans and placed on a size appropriate disposable plate or covered cardboard to fit the exhibit. Food item only is judged. Entries should be placed in a clear plastic bag; Because of environmental conditions, covering with plastic wrap is not acceptable. Carefully secure the entry card to the outside of the wrapped exhibit.
9. Display cake exhibits on covered cardboard. Unfrosted angel food and chiffons should be exhibited in upright position; Bundt cakes displayed with crust side down.
10. For food safety reasons, food products such as cream pies, custards, and other egg, dairy or protein based products will not be accepted for exhibition judging. Refer to K-State Research and Extension publication, 4-H 712, Food Safety Recommendations for Acceptable Fair Exhibits. Contact the Atchison County Extension Office for details or visit www.atchison.ksu.edu.
11. Champion and reserve champion ribbons will be awarded in two areas: 1) baked foods and 2) decorated cakes and cookies.
12. Classes may be added, at superintendent's discretion providing there are five or more entries for an additional class.

 Open Class Food Preservation
Special Awards:
 To encourage use of USDA food preservation guidelines, the Atchison County Extension Family and Consumer Sciences Program Development Committee awards So Easy to Preserve Book to the Reserve Champion exhibitor.
Open Food Preservation Rules:
 1. Product must be in pint or quart standard mason canning jars with all products labeled giving name of product, canning method used and date canned. Do not place name on label or jar. Jellies must be in standard mason half-pint jelly jar. Preserves must be in standard mason pint or half pint jars.
 2. Canning method must follow USDA recommendations. Consult Atchison County Extension Office for information. Entries must be labeled with product name, date of preparation, processing method and processing time. 4-H food labels should not be used in the open class division to avoid possible judging bias. No recipe necessary for single produce exhibits. Exhibits with multiple ingredients such as salsa and relishes require a recipe for food safety reasons.
 3. No exhibitor will receive more than one premium money in any one class. An exhibitor of canned foods may not win more than one prize listed under special awards.
 4. All canned products must have been canned since the previous fair. Violation of this rule will result in forfeiture of premium money and exclusion from competition.
 5. At the discretion of the judge, canned products may be opened.
 6. Entries in youth classes will be by individuals under 13 years of age.
 7. Champion and reserve champion ribbons will be awarded.
